

Ch. Sughar Singh Nursing and Paramedical College

Jaswant Nagar, Etawah

REPORT ON-
"NATIONAL NEWBORN WEEK 2025 CELEBRATION"

“Safety quality and nurturing care ,
Birth right of every newborn”

DATE: From November 15 to November 21

National Newborn Week was celebrated from November 15-21, 2025, with the theme "Safety, Quality and Nurturing care – Birth Right of Every Newborn". The objective was to raise awareness about the importance of newborn health and promote essential newborn care practices.

Events and Activities:

- ❖ Workshop at District hospital Etawah (15 Nov.)
- ❖ Poster making competition at CSSNPC, Jaswant nagar (17 Nov.)
- ❖ Health talk at District hospital Etawah (18 Nov.)
- ❖ Quiz competition at CSSNPC, Jaswant nagar (19 Nov.)
- ❖ Role play at CSSNPC, Jaswant nagar (20 Nov.)
- ❖ Short film presentation at CSSNPC, Jaswant Nagar (21 Nov.)

OBJECTIVE OF THE CELEBRATION:

The primary objective of National Newborn Week (NBW) is to:

1. Raise awareness about the importance of newborn health and care.
2. Promote essential newborn care practices among healthcare professionals, families, and communities.
3. Reduce neonatal mortality and morbidity through education and awareness.
4. Empower families and communities to provide optimal care for newborns.
5. Highlight the importance of quality care for newborns, especially in rural and underserved areas.

KEY TOPICS COVERED:

The National Newborn Week focused on the following conditions:

1. Poster making competition: Poster making competition Organized for students college of nursing on theme, newborns Care , benefiting over newborns.

2. Workshops: Conducted workshops on newborn care for healthcare professionals and new parents, & students, Educated families and communities about essential newborn care practices.

3. Health Talk: Students gave health talk during National Newborn Week with aims :

- Promote safe and healthy newborn care habits
- Raise awareness about common newborn health issues and their prevention
- Empower families to provide optimal care for their newborn

4. Quiz competition- for students with aims :

- Assess knowledge about newborn health and care among students
- Encourage students to learn more about newborn health care
- Develop interest in health care and promote healthy habits
- Foster a sense of responsibility among students towards promoting newborn health and care in their communities.

5. Role play- Students gave Nukkad Natak at community area with aims

- Raise Community awareness about the essential newborn care practices , importance of newborn health care.

6. Short film presentation- Short film display for students with objectives to increase the knowledge and practice related to newborn assessment and care.

7. Media Coverage: The celebration received coverage in print media, increasing awareness about newborn health and care.

Organising Group:

DEPARTMENT OF CHILD HEALTH NURSING, OBSTETRICS AND GYNECOLOGY

1. MRS. SEEMA T.S. MSc. Nursing, Professor H.O.D.- obstetrics and gynecology
2. Mrs. Seema , MSc. Nursing, Assistant Professor, H.O.D.- Child Health Nursing
3. Mr. Raman Chaturvedi, MSc. Nursing , Assistant Professor, Child Health Nursing
4. Mrs. Arti, MSc. Nursing , Assistant Professor, Obstetrics and gynaecology

CONCLUSION:

- ❖ The National Newborn Week celebration was a resounding success, achieving its objective of raising awareness about newborn health and care.
- ❖ The events and activities organized during the week, including health talk, workshops, Nukkad Natak, Quiz Competition, engaged healthcare professionals, students, and community members, promoting essential newborn care practices.
- ❖ It provided an excellent platform for students and faculty to deepen their understanding about New born care. .
- ❖ The session concluded with a vote of thanks and appreciation for the speakers and organizers.

REPORTED BY:

MR. RAMAN CHATURVEDI

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

CHILD HEALTH NURSING

CHAUDHARY SUGHAR SINGH NURSING AND PARAMEDICAL COLLEGE

JASWANT NAGAR, ETAWAH (U.P.)

